1949-5.
L.N. 168/
1967.

[29th June, 1940] Commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Exportation of Fruit Act.
2. For the purposes of this Act, the expression—
  - “certified fruit” means fruit that has been certified as fit for export by the Fruit Inspector;
  - “export” applies to fruit shipped for marketing outside the Island;
  - “fruit” means any fresh fruit, nut or vegetable to which this Act is made to apply by regulations;
  - “Fruit Inspector” means an officer of the Ministry of Agriculture appointed to inspect fruit under this Act;
  - “Minister” means the Minister responsible for Agriculture;
  - “package” includes any barrel, crate, bag or any other covering which may be used for the carriage of fruit;
  - “packing house” means any building which the Minister may license for the purpose of packing fruit for export.

Short title.

Interpretation.

3. All fruit which is intended for export shall be packed under the supervision of the Fruit Inspector at a packing house, and in accordance with the specifications set out in the regulations.

All fruit for export to be packed under supervision of Fruit Inspector.

4. The person in charge of a packing house shall give reasonable and written notice to the Chief Agricultural Officer of the time during which it is proposed to pack fruit for export

Chief Agricultural Officer to be notified of time of packing fruit for export.

THE LAWS OF BARBADOS

and no fruit shall be wrapped, packed or shipped until it has been inspected by the Fruit Inspector to the satisfaction of the Chief Agricultural Officer.

Fruit and packing material for export to conform with regulations.

5. It shall be the duty of every Fruit Inspector to satisfy the Chief Agricultural Officer that all fruit and packing material intended for export and inspected by him conforms to the specifications set out in the regulations.

Certificate of fitness for export.

6. When the Chief Agricultural Officer is satisfied that the requirements of section 4 have been complied with, the Fruit Inspector shall mark each package of fruit intended for export with a stamp showing that such package with its fruit has been inspected and passed as fit for export, and at the same time shall issue to the person in charge of the packing house a certificate or fitness for export in the form prescribed by the Schedule.

Schedule.

Comptroller of Customs not to permit export of fruit not certified as fit for export.

7. The Comptroller of Customs shall refuse to permit the export of fruit not certified by the Fruit Inspector as fit for export and may also exercise the like power whenever he has reasonable cause to suspect that any certified package of fruit has been tampered with after certification by the Fruit Inspector.

Power of Fruit Inspector to board ships and boats and to enter premises.

8. It shall be lawful for the Fruit Inspector at all reasonable times—

- (a) to board any ship, launch, lighter, boat or other vessel on which fruit may be stored for purpose of being exported; and
- (b) to have access to and enter upon any packing house, cold-storage room, building or land where certified fruit is stored, kept or otherwise dealt with for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act and the regulations have been complied with.

Certified fruit, if not shipped within twelve hours, to be placed in cold storage.

9. Unless the Chief Agricultural Officer otherwise permits, all certified fruit, if not shipped within twelve hours after certification, shall immediately be placed in appropriate cold storage until the date of shipment, and failure to do this shall result in the cancellation of such certification.

10. The Chief Agricultural Officer may order the destruction of any fruit attacked by pest or disease which in his opinion might seriously threaten the soundness of other fruit, and all fruit which, for reasons other than the above, is declared by the Fruit Inspector as unsuitable for export shall be immediately removed from the packing house by the person in charge.

Destruction of fruit attacked by pest or disease.

11. Any person who—
