

CHAPTER 11A

REFERENDUM

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.
3. Referendum in Barbados.
4. Proclamation of Referendum Day.
5. Persons who may vote.
6. Conduct of referendum.
7. Regulations.
8. Expenses.
9. Commencement.

SCHEDULE

CHAPTER 11AREFERENDUM

An Act to provide for the holding of a referendum on the Question: 2005-23.

WHEREAS the State of Barbados is now a Constitutional Monarchy with Her Majesty as Head of State:

AND WHEREAS the Constitution Review Commission in its Report of 1998 has recommended that the State of Barbados should become a Parliamentary Republic with the Head of State being a President and with executive power continuing to be exercised by a Cabinet with the Prime Minister as Head of Government:

AND WHEREAS the Government of Barbados considers that as a Parliamentary Republic Barbados should retain its membership in the Commonwealth:

DO YOU AGREE WITH THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE CONSTITUTION REVIEW COMMISSION THAT BARBADOS SHOULD BECOME A PARLIAMENTARY REPUBLIC WITH THE HEAD OF STATE OF BARBADOS BEING A PRESIDENT WHO IS A CITIZEN OF BARBADOS?

[By Proclamation] Commencement.

1. This Act may be cited as the Referendum Act. Short title.

2. In this Act, Interpretation.

"Commission" means the Electoral and Boundaries Commission established by section 41A of the Constitution;

"election officer" has the meaning assigned to it by the Representation of the People Act; Cap. 12.

"general election" means a general election of members of the House of Assembly;

"poll" means the poll in the referendum;

"referendum" means the referendum held under this Act;

"Referendum Day" means the day referred to in section 4(1);

Cap. 12. "register of electors" has the meaning assigned to it by the Representation of the People Act;

"Supervisor of Elections" has the meaning assigned to it by the Representation of the People Act;

"Supervisor of the Referendum" means the Supervisor of Elections acting in the discharge of his functions in the referendum under this Act and the regulations;

"voter" means a person who is entitled to vote in the poll, and includes a person so entitled who votes.

Referendum in Barbados. Schedule. 3. (1) A referendum shall be held in Barbados on the Question set out in the Schedule.

(2) The Question to be asked in the referendum shall be set out on the ballot paper to be used for that purpose and shall be in the form set out in the Schedule.

Proclamation of Referendum Day. 4. (1) The Governor-General shall by proclamation appoint as "Referendum Day" a day for the holding of the referendum, being a day not earlier than the 60th day, and not later than the 90th day, next following the date of the proclamation.

(2) The proclamation shall also specify the day on which the result of the poll is returnable to the Governor-General through the Supervisor of the Referendum.

5. The voters are those persons who

Persons who may vote.

(a) on Referendum Day; or

(b) on the day appointed under the regulations as polling day for the purposes of foreign service voting or voting by election officers are registered in the register of electors as electors entitled to vote at an election of a member of the House of Assembly for a constituency.

6. (1) The Commission is responsible for the conduct and supervision of the referendum.

Conduct of referendum.

(2) The voting of persons in the poll, and the proceedings of the referendum generally, shall be conducted so far as may be as if the referendum were a general election.

(3) Subject to the directions of the Commission, the functions that are discharged in a general election by election officers shall be discharged in the referendum by those officers under this Act and the regulations.

7. (1) Subject to section 6(1), the Commission may by regulations

Regulations.

(a) apply, in relation to the conduct and supervision of the referendum, any provision of the Representation of the People Act or of any other enactment, but with such modifications, adaptations, qualifications and exceptions as the Commission may deem expedient; and

Cap. 12.

(b) make such other provision for the conduct and supervision of the referendum, including provision for the appointment of additional persons to perform functions in relation to the referendum, as the Commission may deem expedient.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) are subject to negative resolution.

ss.8-9

Expenses. 8. All expenses incurred in administering this Act and the referendum shall be defrayed out of monies voted by Parliament.

Commencement. 9. This Act comes into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

SCHEDULE

(Section 3(1) and (2))

QUESTION TO BE ASKED IN THE REFERENDUM TO BE HELD PURSUANT TO SECTION 3

BARBADOS

Form of Ballot Paper

QUESTION TO VOTER

WHEREAS the State of Barbados is now a Constitutional Monarchy with Her Majesty as Head of State:

AND WHEREAS the Constitution Review Commission in its Report of 1998 has recommended that the State of Barbados should become a Parliamentary Republic with the Head of State being a President and with executive power continuing to be exercised by a Cabinet with the Prime Minister as Head of Government:

AND WHEREAS the Government of Barbados considers that as a Parliamentary Republic Barbados should retain its membership in the Commonwealth:

DO YOU AGREE WITH THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE CONSTITUTION REVIEW COMMISSION THAT BARBADOS SHOULD BECOME A PARLIAMENTARY REPUBLIC WITH THE HEAD OF STATE OF BARBADOS BEING A PRESIDENT WHO IS A CITIZEN OF BARBADOS?

YES

NO